Nationwide Financial Solutions Retains iCapital as Its Investment Banking Firm

NATIONWIDE FINANCIAL SOLUTIONS, A Nevada Corporation (OTC BB: NWFS) ("Nationwide"), announced that it has engaged iCapital Finance, Inc. ("iCapital") as its investment banking consulting firm to structure financing, provide capital resources, and identify acquisition candidates. Nationwide operates as a debt resolution company that assists consumers in reducing the amount of their unsecured debts through a process of negotiation and settlement.

Steve Luke, CEO of Nationwide, stated, "With iCapital's success in funding small cap companies, I feel confident we can implement our strategies to be the premier financial solutions provider for the financially challenged consumer. Nationwide is committed to build evolving relationships with our clients by exceeding their expectations as they pursue their financial goals. We believe this is a grossly underserved and fast growing market space. By diversifying into other financial services through acquisitions, we feel that we will be able to better serve our clients' needs. iCapital's experience will help provide market support as Nationwide realizes its potential to grow thus -- providing exceptional service, opportunity, and value for our clients, associates, and shareholders."

Mr. Luke continued, "iCapital has the experience and resources to quickly facilitate financing and bring a substantial number of qualified M&A candidates to the table. We are pleased to be associated with iCapital during this exciting time at Nationwide."

Randall Letcavage, Managing Director of iCapital, states, "Nationwide is well positioned to provide innovative financial products and services for financially challenged consumers and capture new revenue streams through co-marketing agreements and the acquisition of complimentary businesses. We are looking forward to helping Nationwide develop this dynamic, integrated business model."

Irvine-based iCapital will also provide Nationwide with services ranging from the preparation of corporate media communication, as well as providing assistance in maximizing shareholder value.
